Program Information:

Ohana Teen Night is a fun activity program at Hidden Creek designed to give teens a safe place to go on Friday nights to connect, engage, and have fun! Each week, there is a rotation of activities in the gymnasium including basketball, volleyball, dodgeball, ultimate frisbee, kickball, badminton, and pickleball. Hidden Creek's lounge area features an assortment of board games, ping pong, and foosball. The classroom hosts a rotation of activities from arts & crafts, slime making, trivia nights, culinary experiences, and more!

Registration:

There is an annual one-time registration process and fee for Ohana Teen Nights. Students can register in person or over the phone at Hidden Creek (503-693-5900) or online at Hillsboro-Oregon.gov/Register, or can complete a registration form at the door. Once students have completed a registration form, their names will be added to a roster and they can check in off the list the following week.
